

Chapter 15

“Maharaj Will Grant His Bliss through Yogi Maharaj”

Then, Yogi Maharaj traveled to Ahmedabad for the Satsangijivan parayan organized in memory of Nirgundas Swami.

Nandaji had come for Shastriji Maharaj’s darshan, and he strongly requested Shastriji Maharaj to visit New Delhi. Pleased with his devotion, Shastriji Maharaj said, “Now, you should take Jogi Maharaj. I am within him. Now, Maharaj will grant his bliss through Jogi Maharaj.”

Then, Shastriji Maharaj sent Yogi Maharaj, Ashabhai, and others to Delhi so that Nandaji would benefit from their spiritual discourses and presence. As a result, Nandaji and his entire family and friend circle experienced the same inexpressible joy and peace, the divine bliss of Akshardham, as if Shastriji Maharaj himself were present there. Shastriji Maharaj had declared, “Maharaj will grant his bliss through Jogi Maharaj,” and that is exactly what happened.

After returning from New Delhi, Yogi Maharaj immediately traveled to Sarangpur for Shastriji Maharaj’s darshan. He shared with Shastriji Maharaj news of his stay in New Delhi with Nandaji. Shastriji was very pleased to hear his report. Shastriji Maharaj kept Yogi Maharaj with him for two days, during which he remembered Yogi Maharaj constantly and had him sit next to his bed. If Yogi Maharaj left for just a few moments, Shastriji Maharaj would begin to look around to see where he was.
