

Chapter 21

Inauguration of the “Chhapaiya Swaminarayan” Train Station

As Swamishri’s health was poor, he remained in Ayodhya while the special train left that night and, via Barabaki, reached Chhapaiya the next morning at 10 a.m.

At Swamishri’s behest, Nandaji had made arrangements so that a train station large enough to accommodate all trains would be constructed in Chhapaiya. Official orders had been given for the construction of a platform, offices, waiting room, plumbing and waterworks, and other necessities. The railway traffic manager, the district traffic superintendent, and other senior railway officials had reached Chhapaiya before the arrival of the special train so that they could also join in its grand welcome.
